MUSICAL WHEELING.

Events and Doings of a Week in the Local Musical Colony.

THE SEASON OF MUSIC ENDED.

It has been the most brilliant in the history of this community—more and better attractions were had than ever before, and generally speaking musical Wheeling appreciated these facts—the season reviewed by "D."

"Robins and bobolinks, bubbling and tinkling. Shore larks alive there high in the blue. Level in the sunlight the 17th field twinkling. The wind parts the cloud and a star leaps through."

With constant effort on the part of Musical Wheeling, the season, which closed last evening with a fine entertainment at the Conservatory of Music, goes into the musical history of the city as the one which brought the star in sight and Wheeling's artistic reputation may now go abroad hand in hand with its manufacturing and commercial reputations, which latter have been, in proportion to its wealth and size, equal to any city named.

The grateful acknowledgments and remembrances of this community are extended to Mrs. Albert C. Whitaker for the pleasure of hearing W. C. E. Seeboeck, pianist, and Edward Blumenberg, violin soloist; to the Woman's Musical club for the enjoyment of hearing piano possibilities through interpretation of Madame Carreno; to Mr. L. H. Clement for the delights of a recital by Alberto Jonas, pianist; to Mr. W. P. Hubbard and Mr. Nelson C. Hubbard for the pleasure of hearing the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra, and its solo violinist, Mr. Luigi Von Kunis; to the Wheeling Oratorio Society for the presentations of "The Holy City" and "St. Paul," and the hearing of Miss Mary Louise Clary, Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson, Miss Katherine Hilke, Mr. J. H. McKinley and Dr. Carl Duff; to the Philharmonic club for the pleasure of a solo violinist, Mr. Arthur Meisendorff; to Mr. F. Reister, manager of the Opera House, for being permitted the enjoyment of the De Pasquali Grand Opera Company, Victor Herbert, violinist, composer and conductor, Gilmore's band, Innes' band with F. N. Innes, trombone soloist; Emil Kencke, cornet soloist; Miss Bertha Webb, violin soloist, and Miss Rosa Linde, contralto soloist; to the Philharmonic Quartet for delightfully instructive semi-monthly musical evenings, which compelled attention to the classics; to the Opera House Orchestra for enthusiastic bi-weekly entertainment, and splendidly selected concert programmes; to the Woman's Musical Association for interesting matinee performances, and bringing to the front much unsuspected talent.

To Mount de Chantal for the pleasure of listening to Miss Julia Doran, pianist, just returned from Berlin, and in whom, with the justifiable pride of her alma mater, Musical Wheeling takes an interest. Miss Doran has imbibed the musical atmosphere of the continent and should she adopt the concert stage as her life work, a brilliant future is before her.

To these organizations all ably filling their places in the musical life of the city, unstinted praise is given: The Wheeling Amateur Orchestra, the Woman's Choral Club, the Arion Singing Society, the Mozart Singing Society, the Beethoven Singing Society, the Orpheus Singing Society and the Boys Choral Club.

Individually these should not be forgotten: Mr. Paris R. Meyers, and Mr. Heinrich Hartmann, for the inauguration of organ recitals and to every active musician, vocal and instrumental. The above organizations and each individual member owe thanks to the public for its warm applause and appreciation and above all do they extend to Professor Hermann M. Schockey, Wheeling's most popular pianist, their affectionate respects. His untiring work for one and all is the most priceless legacy left by the season, which "A long while has harbored here. Holding fair converse, friend with friend, Bidding its call, with careless ear, But now the tarrying must end." D.

THE WEST VIRGINIA

Glass Works May be Started—Otto Jaeger's Scheme.

Otto Jaeger, a well known glass man of Postoria, yesterday broached a scheme to put into operation the West Virginia glass works at Martin's Ferry. The owners of the works are willing to put in the works at the sum of $25,000 as stock. In addition to this Mr. Jaeger promises to raise $20,000 to invest in the works and put the plant into operation. If the citizens of Martin's Ferry will subscribe $5,000 to be invested in the stock and not as a donation, making a capital stock of $50,000. Mr. Jaeger says he means business and will start up the works inside of two months if the Martin's Ferry people will take the above amount of stock in the enterprise.

It is the intention to manufacture a full line of tableware and blown tumblers. Mr. Jaeger was formerly connected with the Postoria glass works and later at the Seneca glass works. Several outside parties have lately looked at the plant with a view of operating it, provided local encouragement is offered.

Our New Photographer.

Mr. J. E. Giffin is making a finer class of work than has ever been shown in Wheeling before.

He extends an invitation for all to visit his new studio and inspect samples. Mr. Giffin is very agreeably surprised, as some of the best people of the city has already made appointments with him for a sitting, and many have declared their intention of patronizing him.
